Welcome to Tower Insurance.

Thanks for putting your trust in us to help look after your valuable assets.

This is your Plus cover policy wording, underwritten by Tower Insurance Limited.

We want to make insurance simple and easy.

That's why we've removed all the confusing language and made it easier to see what is (and isn't) covered under each section.

We've also included a handy table that shows you how our different policies compare.

It's just one thing we do to give you a little more confidence in your insurance cover.

1. Start here.

These are the basics of your policy.

2. These are your benefits.

What you are covered for on page 12

3. Responsibilities and exclusions.

What you must do, and what isn't covered on page 21

4. Making a claim.

Information about making your claim with us on page 29.

5. Other stuff.

This is important too, like what to do if you have a concern on page 34.

6. Glossary.

Some words have special meanings on page 37.

As part of our commitment to you, this document meets the WriteMark Plain English Standard. The WriteMark is an internationally recognised plain English quality mark.

Your benefits compared

Choosing what is right for you can be difficult, but we have made it easy with this comparison table.

How your policy works

Your Tower Contents Insurance – Plus cover consists of two documents: this policy wording and the certificate of insurance. Make sure you read your policy wording and the certificate of insurance so you understand the cover we're providing and what your obligations are.

This policy wording describes the benefits, exclusions, responsibilities and limits of your cover.

Your certificate of insurance tells you what assets are covered, what level of cover applies and whether any special terms and conditions apply.

We agree to cover you according to the terms outlined in these two documents, as long as you have paid the premium due.

Please check we've got things correct. If there is an error of any sort, if your needs are not met or if you are in doubt then please contact us on 0800 808 808 or at insurance@tower.co.nz.

Option to cover your valuable items

Please read the section – Payment limits per event on the following contents on page 33 to help you decide whether or not you need to specify your more valuable items.

We will pay your reasonable costs up to $1,000.

We will only pay this benefit once per period of insurance.

Liability protection

We will cover you for your legal liability to others arising from accidental physical property damage occurring in New Zealand during the period of insurance.

This benefit extends to your children who are covered under the benefit – University and boarding school cover for your children on page 20.

This benefit is in addition to your contents sum insured.

Limits

You also have cover under this benefit for your legal liability:

1. for bodily injury up to $100,000 per event

3. for loss caused by fire, explosion, impact, water damage or accidental breakage of fixed glass, hand basins, sinks, toilet pans and cisterns, forming part of the house where it is occupied but not owned by you.

We will pay up to $20,000,000 in total under this benefit during the period of insurance.

If you have liability cover with us under any other policy, then we will only pay under one policy per event.

Moving house – cover for your contents in transit

We will pay for loss caused by fire, collision or overturning of the conveying vehicle when your contents are in transit while you are moving from one house to another house (that you intend to occupy).

Transit starts when the conveying vehicle starts moving on a public road after leaving your current property and stops when it is parked and stationary at the new property.

The loading and unloading of the conveying vehicle is covered as part of your standard contents cover and not considered part of transit.

Limit

We will cover your contents at both houses for a maximum of 14 days from the date you start your move.

Natural disaster damage

The premium you pay for this policy includes a levy which is paid to the Earthquake Commission under EQCover. This levy covers your contents for natural disaster damage up to a limit set by them. When the Earthquake Commission pays under EQCover, we will pay for the cost of repairing or replacing the loss above this limit.

Limits

If your contents suffer natural disaster damage, you must claim for EQCover first.

The most we will pay is the difference between the EQCover limit and the sum insured for your contents shown in the certificate of insurance, less any applicable excesses.

We do not cover:

1. any amount the Earthquake Commission legally refuses to pay
2. any excess or deduction under EQCover.

No claims bonus

You will receive a no claims bonus if you have not had any claim with us or with your previous insurer during the last insurance policy year.

Your no claims bonus may step down on renewal following any claim. This means your premium may increase because your no claims bonus status has reduced. However, your no claims bonus may step up again at the next renewal if you make no further claims. This means your premium may reduce because your no claims bonus status has increased.

Other rating factors may mean that although you receive a no claims bonus, your premium may still increase.

One event — one excess

If your contents suffer loss and we have accepted your claim, and we accept a claim from the same event for loss to your car or your house that we also insure, you will only pay one excess. The excess that you pay will be the higher of those excesses.

Spectacles, contact lenses, hearing aids and dentures excess free

We will pay to repair or replace your prescription spectacles, contact lenses (but not disposable contact lenses), hearing aids or removable dentures if you suffer loss.

Any claim under this benefit will be excess free.

Limit

Any consultation, prescription or fitting fees are your responsibility.

Spoiled frozen or refrigerated food

We will pay you to replace your frozen or refrigerated food if it is spoiled and unsafe to eat because your refrigeration or freezer equipment accidentally stops.

Any claim under this part of the benefit will be excess free.

We will also pay the cost to repair any loss to the refrigeration or freezer equipment caused by the spoiled food.

Limits

We will pay the reasonable replacement value of the spoiled food.

Your excess is payable for any claim for loss to the refrigeration or freezer equipment.

Stress benefit lump sum payment

We will pay you a lump sum for the stress caused to you if you suffer a total loss to your contents for which a claim is accepted.

This benefit is in addition to your contents sum insured.

Limit

We will pay you $1,000 per event as soon as we have accepted your contents claim as a total loss.

Temporary accommodation

We will pay your temporary accommodation expenses if your house becomes uninhabitable due to loss which is covered either under this policy or under EQCover.

We will also cover the costs of temporary accommodation where your house is habitable but you are prevented from accessing it by order or direction of government or local authorities.

This benefit includes kennel or cattery fees for your domestic pets.

This benefit is in addition to your contents sum insured.

Limits

This benefit does not apply if you have told us your contents are in a holiday home.

We will pay your reasonable costs up to a maximum of $25,000 per event.

If you own the house and have been living in it, we will only pay temporary accommodation until the first of:

1. repairs to your house have been completed
2. we have paid your house claim
3. you have regained access to your house.

If you are in rental accommodation, we will pay to top-up (if required) your current rental amount to meet your new temporary accommodation rental amount until the first of:

1. the end of your current tenancy agreement
2. we have paid your contents claim
3. you have regained access to your original rental house
4. we have provided this benefit to you for eight weeks.

If we are already providing or paying to top up your temporary accommodation and there are further events which you could claim for, we will only pay for one event.

If you have this benefit with us under any other policy then we will only pay under one policy.

Temporary storage after loss

We will pay to store your contents after an insured loss to the house you live in (whether insured with us or not) and both of the following apply:

1. we have accepted your claim under the benefit – Temporary accommodation on page 19, and
2. your contents need to be removed to a secure storage facility while the house is being made habitable.

This includes costs for any or all of:

1. moving your contents to a secure storage facility
2. storage while you are in temporary accommodation
3. returning your contents to your house.

This benefit is in addition to your contents sum insured.

Limit

We will pay your reasonable costs up to $5,000 per event.

University and boarding school cover for your children

We will pay for loss that occurs to your children's contents while they are attending university, polytechnic or school. Your children must be staying in university or polytechnic halls of residence, a school hostel or as a boarder in a private home.

What your responsibilities are

Here is a list of what you, and any person in charge of your contents with your permission, must do.

1. You must be honest and fair with us. All your statements made about this policy and any claim must be honest, correct and complete. If they are not, we have no liability under this policy or for any claim.
2. You must provide us with all relevant information. This means you must tell us everything you know, or could reasonably be expected to know, that may influence our decision to insure you or the terms on which we insure you.
3. You must tell us if any circumstances change or may change while we are insuring your contents. This applies when the policy starts, while it is in force and when it renews.

Examples of a change in circumstances or any other information may include:

- a. if the use or occupation of your house or land changes to include any business use
- b. if any alteration or addition is made to your house (aside from minor alterations as described on page 14)
- c. if you or any person who may occupy your house is charged with, convicted of, or commits any criminal offence other than traffic offences.

These examples are a guide only. If you are in any doubt, tell us the details, even if we have not asked questions that relate to it.

We may change the terms on which we insure you, or the premium, to reflect the change in circumstances that you have told us about.

We may cancel your policy by giving you at least seven days' notice if what you tell us is in our opinion, a substantial change in risk.

4. You and any person in charge of your contents with your permission must:
 - a. take reasonable care to protect and maintain your contents and to avoid legal liability, and
 - b. ensure that your house is securely locked when unattended.

Otherwise we may decline your claim and/or recover any payment already made.

5. You must pay all premiums in full by the due date. If any premium remains unpaid 28 days following the due date for payment, we may cancel this policy (effective from the first day of the period to which the unpaid premium relates).
6. If you occasionally let your house, or any part of your house, short-term (no more than eight consecutive weeks at a time) you must:
 - a. ensure the house is cleaned and inspected for loss following each rental before any bond is released, and
 - b. make a claim for loss you discover with any accommodation booking service you used before you can claim under this policy.

7. If you do not comply with your obligations under this section – What your responsibilities are on page 26 and What your responsibilities are at claim time on page 29, we can decline any claim (and recover any claims payment already made). We can also cancel or avoid this policy.

If we cancel we will give you seven days' notice sent, emailed or posted to your last known address on our records. If we do this, we will refund your unused premium.

If we avoid your policy, it will be treated as if it had never been taken out. If we ask, you will have to refund any claims payments we have previously paid to you. If we do this, we will email or post notice of this decision to your last known address on our records. We will refund your entire premium paid less any claims already paid.

How to make a claim

It is important that you tell us as soon as you become aware of any circumstances which may result in a claim.

Call us on 0800 808 808 or go to tower.co.nz/claims to fill in an online claim form.

What your responsibilities are at claim time

Events leading to a claim can be stressful. Your personal safety is paramount, so make sure you and anyone else involved are safe from harm and if necessary, call the emergency services.

Here is a list of what you and any person in charge of your contents with your permission must do at claim time.

Before you lodge your claim

You must:

1. Inform the Police if it appears that there has been arson, theft, burglary or malicious damage.
2. Tell us as soon as possible:
 - a. if it is likely that you will make a claim
 - b. if you or anyone else who may have cover under this policy is charged with any offence which resulted in loss of property or caused bodily injury to someone else
 - c. about any claim made against you by another person, with full particulars and all legal documents served on you.
3. Take all reasonable steps to prevent further loss or liability.
4. Get our permission before you arrange for any repairs or replacement, or incur any expense for any claim.
5. If we ask you to complete a claim form, return that claim form to us within 30 days.

Once you've lodged your claim

You must:

1. Let us inspect the damaged contents if we ask and deal with any salvage reasonably; no property may be abandoned to us.

2. Provide proof of ownership or purchase (such as receipts, bank statements, credit card vouchers, warranties, guarantees, photos, videos, and so on) for any property you claim for.
3. Let us complete all necessary documents and authorities for any claims under this policy as your authorised agent.
4. Comply with all our requests about your claim by providing full cooperation, information and assistance.
5. Not discuss a claim made on you by another person with them; instead, refer them to us.
6. Pay any applicable excess and any applicable additional excess; where you discover damage caused on multiple occasions then pay an excess for each occasion or event that occurred.
7. Let us instruct a solicitor of our choice to conduct your defence. Follow the recommendations of that solicitor about the conduct or continuation of your defence.
8. Let us talk with that solicitor when necessary about the details of the case and the conduct or continuation of your defence.

After we've accepted your claim

You must:

1. Cooperate fully in any action we take to recover money from other parties involved in your claim.
2. Let us take over for our own benefit and settle any legal right of recovery you may have.
3. Tell us if any person is ordered to make reparation to you for any loss or cost that was part of the claim. Reimburse us for that payment as soon as you receive any reparation.
4. Tell us if any lost or stolen property which was part of the claim is found or recovered. Hand it over to us or, at our option, refund any money paid by us if we request it.

Otherwise we may decline your claim and/or recover any payment already made.

How we will look after your claim

When you contact us to make a claim we will:

1. process your claim within the terms of the policy
2. explain how the claims process works
3. explain what we need to go ahead with your claim
4. if required, arrange for an assessor, investigator or other specialist to inspect the loss and explain the procedure that will be followed
5. keep you updated on your claim's progress
6. give you the information you need on how we will settle your claim
7. if we decline your claim, we will clearly explain why.

What excesses you may need to pay

The excess is the amount of any claim that you are responsible for. The excess applies to each event resulting in a claim.

Where loss has been caused on multiple occasions an excess will apply to each occasion.

Unless the benefit being claimed says it is excess free you will need to pay your excess. Your excess and any additional excesses that may apply are detailed on your certificate of insurance and in this policy wording.

Where a benefit specifies an additional excess, that additional excess will apply above any other excess in your certificate of insurance.

An additional excess of $100 applies if your house is let, leased, rented or tenanted to anyone.

How we will settle your claim

We will settle your claim for loss following the process set out below.

We will pay up to a maximum of:

1. the limit stated in the relevant benefit you are claiming for, or the contents sum insured as recorded on your certificate of insurance (whichever is less)

2. the Liability protection limits as recorded in this policy wording, and
3. the limits in this policy wording for any benefits stated as being in addition to your contents sum insured.

In all cases:

1. If you pay your premiums by instalments and your contents suffer a total loss you must pay the rest of the annual premium before we settle the claim.
2. We have the option whether to make a payment, replace or repair your contents.
3. Where we choose to repair your contents, we will repair them to a similar condition to the condition they were in when new, without exactly replicating them. There will be no deduction for betterment.
4. Where we choose to replace your contents, we will do so by purchasing an equivalent new item, or where this is not available, the nearest equivalent item. There will be no deduction for betterment.
5. We will use a supplier of our choice.
6. We will pay an interested party (finance company and so on) if we have been notified of their interest in your contents. Their receipt will discharge us to the extent of our payment.
7. Where we make payment, we have the option to include an allowance for your reasonable temporary accommodation expenses, up to the maximum specified in the benefit – Temporary accommodation on page 19.
8. In the case of partial loss to your contents we will reinstate your contents sum insured after we meet any claim.
9. If we settle your claim for a total loss your policy will be automatically cancelled and no refund of premium will be given.

We are not bound to:

1. pay for window coverings not located in the room or rooms where the loss or damage occurred
2. pay the cost of replacement until it is actually incurred

3. pay more than the sums insured shown in the certificate of insurance and/or this policy wording
4. pay the cost of replacement or repair of your contents beyond what is reasonable, practical or comparable to the original
5. pay more than the cash equivalent for the unconsumed portion of your cosmetics and/or toiletries
6. pay more than 50% of the replacement value of your contents if you choose not to replace or repair them, or
7. repair or replace your contents exactly to their previous condition.

We will refund any premiums you paid and we will both regard this policy as never having started.

Making changes to this policy

You can have this policy altered as long as we agree in writing to that alteration before it takes effect.

We can alter the terms or cancel this policy by giving you at least seven days' notice sent or emailed to your last known address on our records in any of the following circumstances:

1. to reflect any material changes to relevant law
2. to increase the level of existing cover, or add additional cover

If you do not agree to the alterations to the terms of your policy, you can cancel it (effective from the date of the proposed alteration).
